1st Annual Patagonia Wild and Scenic Environmental Film Festival On Tour May 11th

Friends of Butte Creek is bringing the Patagonia Wild and Scenic Environmental Film Festival to the Butte Creek Watershed! Join us on Friday, May 11 from 4:30 to 10:30 PM at the Paradise Performing Arts Center, 777 Nunneley Road, Paradise. The festival will introduce a selection of the best environmental films from the South Yuba River Citizens League's annual film festival.

With major support from Patagonia, the Sacramento River Preservation Trust, and many others organizations, the Friends of Butte Creek will offer an evening you will not forget. From salmon and steelhead, to insects, to birds, to trees, to rivers, to mountains and some of the greatest water adventures, you will enjoy every moment of this fabulous evening. Butte Creek beer, local wine and refreshments will be available, as well as hors d'oeuvres for early comers. Seating begins at 5:30 pm with the program starting at 6:00 pm.

Tickets are available online tickets at www.buttecreek.org or in Chico at: Metagraphics, 194 E. 6th Street, the Sacramento River Preservation Trust, 631 Flume Street, and The Music Connection, 973 East Avenue. In Paradise, tickets will be available at The Country Touch, 6002 Clark Road, Suite C, Fir Street Gallery & Gifts, 6256 Skyway, Paradise Senior Center, 877 Nunneley Road and the Paradise Performing Arts Center, 777 Nunneley Road.
